

2009
Northeast
Regional Mentoring
Conference

October 15 reception
October 16 conference
Providence Marriott, RI

Workshop Offerings: Fri., Oct. 16

Best Practices Track

- Mentor Retention
- Evaluating Your Program
- College Community Mentoring

Skills Development Track:

- Cultural Diversity
- Mentoring Children of Prisoners
- Bridges Out of Poverty

Sustainability Track

- MentorTraining: Beyond the Basics
- Marketing & Media
- Fundraising Strategies

Outreach Track

- Role of Business
- Advocacy
- Wi-Mentor & Technology

Basics in Programming Track

- Elements of Effective Practice
- Screening Mentors
- Preparing Mentees for Mentoring

You're invited!

The state and regional mentoring partnerships of the Northeast have united hands and resources to bring you the first-ever Northeast Regional Mentoring Conference: United Hands for Mentoring. Whether you are a seasoned mentoring program coordinator, a passionate supporter of quality mentoring opportunities for youth, or are just beginning to explore the world of mentoring, you will find an impressive selection of workshops to choose from. Please unite your hands with ours in celebrating mentoring successes and network with others who share your passion for mentoring.

Premiere Event Sponsor: Webster Bank

Conference Partners:

Mentoring Partnerships of Long Island, Maine, Massachusetts, NYC, Rhode Island and Vermont, in conjunction with the Governor's Prevention Partnership of Connecticut, Mentor Consulting Group, and MENTOR.

For registration details visit: www.mentorRI.org/NERC.htm

GUEST SPEAKERS

Charlie Appelstein, MSW, President
Appelstein Training Resources, LLC

Bruce MacDonald, President & CEO
Big Brothers Big Sisters of Canada

Arlene McNulty, President & CEO
Rhode Island Mentoring Partnership

Gregory Owens, Director of Special Projects
NYS Off. of Children & Family Services

Laurance Selnick, Senior Vice President
Cash Management Services Webster Bank

Judy Strother-Taylor, Project Director
U.S. ED Mentoring Resource Center

Robert Twomey, Regional President
Webster Bank

Dr. Susan G. Weinberger, President
Mentor Consulting Group

Cost to attend: $100/person
Includes Thursday evening reception, Friday breakfast & lunch. Hotel room not included.

Providence Marriott Downtown
1 Orms St., Providence, RI room rate: $139 + tax per night
(special conference rate)

Northeast Regional Mentoring Conference
c/o Rhode Island Mentoring Partnership
3296 Post Road
Warwick, RI 02886

Event Contact: Jo-Ann Schofield
Phone: (401) 732-7700 ext 103
Email: jschofield@mentorRI.org

